

HARISIOS BOUDOULAS, MD, Dr, Dr Hon. Mult.
Professor, Academician

Obtained his medical degree and doctorate diploma from Aristotelian University, School of Medicine, Thessaloniki, Greece. In addition, he has been awarded with honorary Doctorate Diplomas from various Medical Schools. He has been a Professor of Internal Medicine/Cardiology and Pharmacy at The Ohio State University. He is Director, Clinical Research Center, Chairman Scientific Board, Biomedical Research Foundation, Academy of Athens. He is the past President of the Hellenic Cardiological Society. Dr. Boudoulas has been actively involved in teaching and mentoring Students of Medicine and in patient care and he has been included in the list of Best Doctors in America. He is an international authority in several areas of Cardiology. Characteristic are the comments in the N Engl J Med (1993; September 3, p. 737), where Dr. Boudoulas has been described as "One of the Renaissance People of Cardiology".