Our mission

The ESC Working Group on Cardiac Cellular Electrophysiology provides a friendly and informal environment favouring an unrestrained exchange of fresh ideas in the field of cardiac ion channel physiology, cell-signalling, excitation-contraction coupling and other topics related to myocardial function.

The major goal of the WG is to foster the exchange of scientific information in the field of cellular electrophysiology.

The WG has been the catalyst for collaborations and exchange visits between European laboratories, as well as establishing joint research proposals within the EC.

Meetings

The WG organises an annual meeting which is a forum for presenting new and unpublished data with emphasis on informal discussion. The younger scientists get the opportunity to present their work and are encouraged to actively participate. In addition to this annual forum, the WG actively contributes to the organisation of the ESC Annual Congress.

Collaboration with ESC Council on Basic Science

The WG has appointed a representative of Cardiac Cellular Electrophysiology to the Council of Basic Science.

Official ESC Journal: EUROPACE

The European Journal of Pacing, Arrhythmias and Cardiac Electrophysiology is a Journal from the European Heart Rhythm Association (EHRA) and Cardiac Cellular Electrophysiology of the European Society of Cardiology.

33th Annual Meeting of the WG on Cardiac
Cellular Electrophysiology
