

Associate Prof. Ruxandra Maria CHRISTODORESCU, Romania

Ruxandra Maria Christodorescu is Associate Professor of Medicine at University of Medicine and Pharmacy V.Babes Timisoara, member of Research Center, Institute of Cardiovascular Diseases Timisoara and senior consultant in Cardiology and Internal Medicine, Cardiology Department ASCAR, The City Hospital Timisoara. Assoc.Prof Christodorescu graduated from at University of Medicine and Pharmacy V.Babes Timisoara Romania and completed his PhD in cardiology at University of Medicine and Pharmacy V.Babes Timisoara. She is also certified interventional cardiologist. Her main research interests include heart failure, hypertension and coronary artery disease.

Heart Failure research included Investigator in RRICA-National Registry on Acute Heart Failure, 2012 SONIC-RO- Observational Registry on Heart Failure in Romania, investigator of "European Heart Failure Survey- HF Pilot" ESC Surveys; investigator "Permanent Registry of Heart Failure

Leadership roles include past chair of the Council for Cardiology Practice of ESC, past chair of WG Heart Failure, Romanian Society of Cardiology, member of ESC Membership Committee. She is FESC since 2007

Assoc.Prof Christodorescu was TF member 2023 ESC Guidelines Diabetes and Cardiovascular diseases,

TF member 2024 ESC Guidelines Chronic Coronary Syndromes and TF member 2024 ESC Guidelines Elevated blood pressure and Hypertension 2024-present Member ESC Membership committee.

She also participated in several position papers of ESC as CCP representative.