

ACNAP MENTORING PROGRAMME

Ian Jones

Research mentor

Discipline	Nursing
Qualifications	RN, PhD
Affiliation	Liverpool John Moores University, Liverpool, United Kingdom
Country of residence	England
Link to external web page/research website with publication list	https://www.ljmu.ac.uk/about-us/staff-profiles/faculty-of-health/nursing-and-allied-health/ian-jones
Career overview	Ian is a senior cardiac nurse and academic with over 30 year's clinical experience. He is a former President of the British Association for Nursing in Cardiovascular Care, Council member of the British Cardiovascular Society and Nurse Fellow of the European Society of Cardiology. He was appointed to LJMU in 2016 and became the Associate Dean for Research and Knowledge Exchange in the Faculty of Health in 2017 Ian was instrumental in the development of the Liverpool Centre for Cardiovascular Science, a multi-disciplinary, multi stakeholder research organisation that is focussed on the pursuit of high quality cardiovascular related research. He is a member of a number of University committees including Academic Board and the University Research Committee. He is also engaged in numerous external organisations including the

ACNAP

Association of Cardiovascular
Nursing & Allied Professions

ACNAP MENTORING PROGRAMME

	Liverpool Clinical Commissioning Group, the Liverpool Health Partners, the British Association for Nursing in Cardiovascular Care, the Association for Cardiovascular Nurses and Allied Health Professionals of the European Society of Cardiology and the Council of Deans for Health Research group. Ian has published widely in the field and completed a PhD focussing on the clinical outcomes of cardiac patients. He has successfully managed a large number of funded research projects that have focussed on the needs of cardiac patients and their carers, the end of life needs of heart failure patients and the users views of cardiac nurses. He has benefited from a number of grants from the British Heart Foundation and NHS organisations to enable him to undertake this important area of work. Ian is an internationally renowned academic who is regularly invited to present at the annual conferences of a number of national cardiac societies
Research focus	Nursing management of people with CVD.
Collaborations	University of Liverpool Oxford Brookes University University of Suffolk Queen's University Belfast Huddersfield University Napier University Edith Cowan University, Joondalup, Western Australia Flinders University, Adelaide
Keywords related to research interests	Acute Coronary Syndromes Cardiac Rehabilitation Atrial Fibrillation Heart Failure