CANDIDATE CODE OF CONDUCT

This document describes the code of conduct to be respected by candidates for an elected voting position on the EAPCI Board.

- Candidates for elected positions at the EAPCI Board must refrain from canvassing activities, such as travelling to meet Constituent Bodies for reasons not related to their current ESC or EAPCI activities, or from mailing / e-mailing Constituent Bodies.

- Candidates might be invited to attend a virtual interview with the 2020-2022 EAPCI Nominating Committee

- Following the selections of candidates by the Nominating Committee, the application forms of all candidates will be posted on the EAPCI Elections page of the ESC website.

- At the discretion of the Nominating Committee, the slide presentation of each candidate for the position of President-Elect may also be published on the Elections page of the ESC website.

- No other form of campaign activity is allowed during the election period, which starts with the official publication of the final slate to the end of the voting period.

- In case of serious violation on the part of the candidate, the Nominating Committee and the Ethics Committee will examine the evidence and act accordingly. This may include disqualify the candidate from standing in the election.
