

First EP Wire Survey Results – Question 1

First EP Wire Survey Results – Question 2

2. How do you confirm, the absence of recurrence during the first year of Follow Up (FU) (multiple choice questionnaire)?
	Never	Sometimes	Always	Response Count
Absence of clinical symptoms eg palpitations	3.1% (1)	0.0% (0)	96.9% (31)	32
Intermittent follow up with standard ECGs	3.0% (1)	3.0% (1)	93.9% (31)	33
External ambulatory monitoring eg Holter recording	0.0% (0)	8.8% (3)	91.2% (31)	34
Implantable Loop Recorder	69.2% (18)	30.8% (8)	0.0% (0)	26
Pacemaker / ICD memories	9.7% (3)	83.9% (26)	6.5% (2)	31
	answered question			34
	skipped question			1

First EP Wire Survey Results – Question 3 & 4

3. Do you think that, in the future, implantable devices could be the "gold standard" to prove freedom from AF recurrence?

	Response Percent	Response Count
Yes 	29.4%	10
May be 	38.2%	13
No 	32.4%	11
answered question		34
skipped question		1

4. Would you be prepared to discontinue anticoagulant therapy post AF ablation in a patient with occasional AF recurrences, independently of symptoms?

	Response Percent	Response Count
Yes if the CHADS 2 score is < 2 	91.2%	31
Yes for any CHADS 2 score	0.0%	0
No 	8.8%	3
answered question		34
skipped question		1

First EP Wire Survey Results – Question 5

5. In your opinion, should success be defined as		Response Percent	Response Count
Freedom from AF without antiarrhythmic drugs		67.6%	23
Freedom from AF with antiarrhythmic drugs		20.6%	7
Symptomatic improvement		11.8%	4
		answered question	34
		skipped question	1

First EP Wire Survey Results – Question 6

6. Should AF ablation success have the same definition for ablation of paroxysmal, persistent and permanent forms ?			Response Percent	Response Count
Yes			58.8%	20
No			41.2%	14
			answered question	34
			skipped question	1

First EP Wire Survey Results – Question 7 & 8

First EP Wire Survey Results – Question 9

