

Cardiovascular Realities in Europe

Heart Transplants

There are wide disparities across Europe in access to hearts for transplants. Norway leads at 13 transplants per million people, followed by Austria at 7.4 transplants per million people.